About Open Road Snacks™

Why is Rocky Mountain Popcorn® now Open Road Snacks™?

Open Road Snacks™ is a natural evolution of the rapid product growth under the Rocky Mountain Popcorn® Company brand. The company was born from a passionate commitment to small-batch taste on a go-anywhere scale; so selective snackers never have to compromise quality for convenience. Our products are made with everything active snackers need to fuel up for fun times (like natural ingredients and whole-grain goodness), without the things that can slow them down (like trans fats or gluten). From Maine to Malibu, in grocery stores, convenience stores and even airports, Open Road Snacks™ are setting the new gold standard for fresh, great-tasting, good-for-you grab-and-go snacks that please the modern palate.

I love your products! Where can I buy them?

Open Road Snacks™ are available at travel and convenience stores across the country, to find a store near you click locations on our website. You can also purchase our products through Amazon and on our website at openroadsnacks.com.

Are your products gluten free, natural and nut free?

Yes, we are happy to say that all of our products are gluten free, all natural and nut free.

Does Open Road Snacks™ utilize any green initiatives?

Open Road Snacks™ uses wind energy to produce corrugated cardboard, the packing for the popcorn bags. The manufacturing plant is also part of the SFI initiative. Both the plant and the headquarters of Open Road Snacks™ recycle. And, instead of packaging popcorn in a tin for holidays and gift giving, the company created the "Not-A-Tin," a recycled and recyclable alternative to the traditional metal popcorn tin.

Is Open Road Snacks™ involved with any charities?

Open Road Snacks™ is proud to support not-for-profit children's charities and those organizations that focus on healthy lifestyles. The company continually supports Children's Miracle Network, MS, Miracles on Ice and others in as many facets as possible.
